Sant Shiromani Ravidas Global Skills Park

Saint Ravidas, renowned by the name Raidas, is believed to have flourished during the 15th to 16th century CE. Among the medieval spiritual seekers, Raidas holds a distinguished place. Like Kabir, Raidas is also counted among the saint-poets. He considered true religion to be the inner feelings of a person and mutual brotherhood.

In his poetic compositions, Raidas used simple and practical Brij language, which also includes a blend of Awadhi, Rajasthani, Khari Boli, and Urdu-Persian words. Raidas especially cherished the use of simile and metaphor as poetic ornaments. In his straightforward verses, the saint-poet expressed the emotions of the heart with great clarity. His self-expression, humility, and serene devotion stir the hearts of readers. Forty of Raidas's hymns are also included in the sacred scripture of the Sikhs, the Guru Granth Sahib.
